ON STREET ACTIVITIES AND OCCUPATION OF PARKLANDS POLICY

1. Introduction

- 1.1. Council encourages and supports activities in the Copper Coast that promote a sense of vibrancy and activation that does not have adverse impacts on local traders and residents. The Local Government Act 1999 provides the legislative basis for the enactment of By-Laws. Council will exercise its powers as appropriate under the applicable by-Laws to support this Policy.
- 1.2. Activities that Council may manage on streets or on parklands include:
  - Busking
  - Pamphlet Distribution
  - Pedestrian Advertising
  - Preaching
  - Park Lands Occupation (excludes events)
  - Street Stalls / Raffles / Badge Days
- 1.3. These activities will be managed through the issuing of permits. Activities that provide a sense of entertainment and enjoyment are to be considered busking.
- 1.4. Other activities not listed above, may also be managed in accordance with this Policy.

2. Scope

- 2.1. It is the policy of Council to encourage the use of open space in a manner that caters for the competing needs and interests of all users of such space.
  - 2.1.1. Council will work with and engage the local community to ensure the actions of permit holders do not impede or create adverse impacts.
  - 2.1.2. Council will engage the services of South Australia Police where any activity is deemed to be unlawful and/or in breach of the peace, beyond Council jurisdiction.
  - 2.1.3. Street activity should not impede or disrupt pre-existing safety design elements.
  - 2.1.4. Council is cognisant of its role in minimising harm to users of the public realm. To this end, Council may request a current police background check of street permit applicants, particularly regarding offences involving children.
  - 2.1.5. Council is committed to enabling accessibility by requiring at least 1.5 metres of clear footpath.
