ART TRAIL

Wallaroo & North Beach

Explore the area's history, lifestyle and people through the murals, Light Show, sculptures and mosaics around the townships.

1 Wallaroo Photo Board

Looking for the perfect photo spot to remember your trip to Wallaroo and let everyone know where you have been.

The new Photo Board is located at the start of the jetty.

2 Wallaroo Foreshore Mosaic Walk

Enjoy a stroll along the Wallaroo foreshore and enjoy the many mosaic tiles made by local school students featuring coastal themes and images.

3 Heritage Drive Granite & Copper Sculpture

The granite rocks represent the towns of the Copper Coast, drill holes the wooden supports within copper mines and the copper headframe the mining and smelting structures. Sculpture: Trevor Warren

4 Cutter "Canberra" Sculpture

The Fishing Cutter "Canberra" is an interpretative sculpture, with picnic table, which was donated by the Angelakis family and rendered by sculptor Indiana James in 2006. A roof structure was installed recently.

5 Anchor Sculpture

A large anchor located in front of the Wallaroo Nautical & Heritage Museum & the Tipara Lighthouse. Donated by Hugh A Fyfe. It was raised off Neptune Island by SS Cape York.

6 Train Mural (1)

Located within the Wallaroo Heritage & Nautical Museum on a building back wall, this mural is of First Steam Engine (no 190) on the new Wallaroo Jetty from August 1st 1927.

It was painted by artist Anthony Fenwick in 2014.

7 Train Mural (2)

Also located within the Wallaroo Museum this mural is of "Wallaroo" built by Hudswell Clarke in 1903 and was part of a fleet of similar locos working at Wallaroo copper smelters. Painted by Robert Bean

8 Jones Street Jetty and Tall Ship Mural

This large mural was painted on a shop side wall in 1999 by Siv Grava and John Turpie, with the help of local artists. Funding was provided by YP living Artists Group and the now Copper Coast Council. Renovated by Wallaroo Lions, Julie Cheshire & sponsored by WCDA

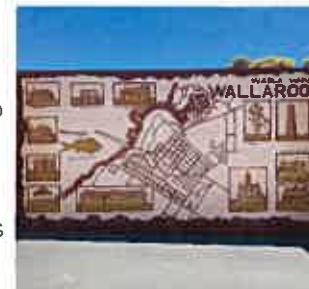

9 Wallaroo Heritage Mural

Located the full length of the old railway platform this mural was commissioned by the Wallaroo Lions Club with the assistance of the Copper Coast Council and images sourced from the Wallaroo Heritage & Nautical Museum. Designed & painted by Julie Cheshire in 2 stages between 2019-2021

10 Wallaroo Primary & Community Mural Project

The four sided students hitting wall can be viewed from the footpath & was completed in 2020 with the support of Kadina Apex, Rotary NYP and Lions Club of Wallaroo. Artist John Whitney has created a sporting theme one side, and on the other a Wallaroo map, heritage buildings and the origins of Wallaroo's name 'Wadla Waru'.

11 Wildman Street Jetty Images Mural

Painted in 1999 by John Turpie & Siv Grava with local artists and Yr 7 students from Kalori & Wallaroo Primary. Featuring the Wall Family, who lived near the mural site, the ladies rowing club, jetty, sailing ships and foreshore buildings.

12 North Beach Murals

North Beach Progress Association entrusted local Janyne Price to paint the double sided mural in the North Beach playground. What was included has been suggested by local residents and includes everything from prawn trawlers to kombi vans.
